DEPUTY BAILIFF: Subject to the condition that the plaintiffs will abide by any order that the Court may make as to damages which the plaintiffs ought to pay in the event that the Court should, hereafter, be of the opinion that the defendants or the English Receiver shall have sustained any by reason of the order which we make, subject to the condition that the plaintiffs will pay the reasonable costs of the defendants of and incidental to today's hearing, subject to the condition that the plaintiffs will pay £1,000 into the hands of the Greffier as security for the costs of the defendants by the 24th December of this year, subject to the condition that the plaintiffs will procure affidavits to be sworn and filed with the Greffier, verifying the facts stated by counsel, within a reasonable time, the Court orders an immediate interim injunction restraining the defendants from releasing to any third party and/or permitting to be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court the Chimera shares and the Salisbury shares and all and any documents relating thereto and concerning the title thereto, including but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all or any transfer forms relating to the Chimera shares or the Salisbury shares as are in the possession of the defendants within the jurisdiction (that leaves out the reference to further documents) and to forthwith deliver up to the Viscount or his officers the Chimera shares and/or Salisbury shares and all and any documents relating thereto, including, again, the transfer forms but not the further all and any documents relating to the first and second plaintiffs.

Now, Mr Le Cocq, it will be necessary ... I'm sorry to make you do a lot of work but we've got to have something on which to found an Act of today's proceedings, so you'll have to put in a Representation to the Greffe on which today's Act will be based because there is no Order of Justice in existence and then you will have to prepare a revised Order of Justice which I will sign so as to bring the proceedings back before the Court.

ADVOCATE LE COCQ: (reply is inaudible)

DEPUTY BAILIFF: Very well, that's acceptable to the Court.

ADVOCATE LE COCQ: (inaudible)

DEPUTY BAILIFF: Very well. Thank you very much. Now, Mr Le Cocq, in addition, we require you to give notice of the order made today to the Receiver by recorded delivery, with leave to intervene to seek the raising or variation of the injunctions and you should do that by letter because the Act of the Court will not be ready today, so you should do that by letter, and we note, finally, that the defendants reserve - they have got a right, anyway - but they reserve the right to re-apply if they wish to do so.

ADVOCATE LE COCQ: (inaudible)

DEPUTY BAILIFF: Thank you.
