

OATH.

1737. July 15. AITCHISON'S ASSIGNEE against DRUMMOND.

No. 1.

OATH,—the cedent's not competent against an onerous purchaser from the gratuitous cedent of that purchaser, though that first assignee's right bears love and favour. Vide ASSIGNATION.

---

1741. June 5. REPRESENTATIVES of BARCLAY against COUPER.

No. 2.

WHERE by the nature of the thing, or because of prescription, a claim can only be proven scripto or juramento that it is resting owing, it is no sufficient proof that the defender (a factor for another) has got allowance from his constituent in his accounts for that claim as paid by him, but the pursuer must further prove resting owing by the defender's oath.

OATH OF PARTY.

1736. January 2.

PROCURATOR-FISCAL of EDINBURGH against ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL.

No. 1.

OATH of party competent to prove riot. Vide PROOF. (See DICT. No. 18. p. 9400.)

---

1747. June 24.

JEAN LAW against LUNDIN of that Ilk, and LUMSDEN of Innergelly.

No. 2.

A REFERENCE to oath admitted after adducing witnesses. An executrix sued two defenders for furnishings by the defunct, a merchant, and adduced

- No. 2. one witness against each ; the one proved nothing, and the other very little, and then she referred to their oaths. Drummore, after advising with us, found it not competent ; but on a reclaiming bill we altered, and found it competent.
