Address: Peel Building
2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

1. The complainant requested information from the Home Office (the public authority). By the date of this notice the public authority had not issued a substantive response to this request.

3. The Commissioner requires the public authority to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.

Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 12 October 2023, the complainant wrote to the public authority and requested information in the following terms:

"1] What is the 'Policy' or 'Protocol' of the Home Secretary, Police Minister and or Home Office 'Executives' on receipt of information concerning a Police Force failing to investigate reported crime (Because Police Staff committed the crime) and then subverted the criminal justice system, by adopting corrupt practices, to quash any proper criminal investigations in order to protect the offenders and the organisation in general?

2] What is the 'Policy' and 'Protocol' for recording and dealing with complaints made against the Home Secretary, Police Minister and or Home Office Staff, where negligence or incompetence is identified?

(For example where a member of the public with information about Police Corruption is ignored, and when a complaint is then made about the Home Office lack of professional standards, that complaint is also then ignored)"

Reasons for decision

6. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

7. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".

8. On 7 December 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the public authority, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant's request within 10 working days.
9. Despite this intervention the public authority has failed to respond to the complainant.
10. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the public authority did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the public authority has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with FOIA.
