

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 17 July 2024

Public Authority: College of Policing
Address: Leamington Road
Ryton-on-Dunsmore
Coventry
CV8 3EN

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant has requested information from the College of Policing about how costs of major investigations are recorded.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the above public authority ("the public authority") breached section 10(1) of FOIA by failing to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days.
3. The Commissioner does not require further steps to be taken.

Request and response

4. On 5 June 2024, the complainant wrote to the public authority and requested information in the following terms:

"To clarify, during a major investigation (which is likely to be ongoing for a number of years) what information needs to be recorded by law in order to have an accurate figure regarding the total cost of the investigation once it has ended. For example, man hours of each officer spent investigating the offences, or the number of officers working on the investigation.

This information may have to be recorded for auditing reasons or to provide an accurate costing to the home office or the PCC or so tax payers know how their money is being spent by the police.

When a police force claims, let's say, 20 million spent on a police investigation what information is recorded by the police to come up with that figure. For example, some of this will be staffing the investigation. So what are the laws and/or regulations and/or guidelines and/or policies and procedures regarding what information has to be recorded."

5. The public authority responded on 10 July 2024.

Scope of the case

6. The complainant has confirmed that they are happy with the information they have now received, but wish to have the late response formally recorded.

Reasons for decision

7. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

8. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".

9. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the public authority did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the public authority has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days.
