CERTAIN DEBTS OF COMPANIES UNDER PARAGRAPH 3ZB OF PART 8 OF SCHEDULE 3 (TRAVEL EXPENSES OF WORKERS PROVIDING SERVICES THROUGH EMPLOYMENT INTERMEDIARIES)

Interpretation of Part 3C: “relevant contributions debt” and “relevant date”

29Y.—(1) In this Part “relevant contributions debt”, in relation to a company means an amount within any of sub-paragraphs (2) to (5).

(2) An amount within this sub-paragraph is an amount that the company is to account for in accordance with paragraph 3ZB(6A) to (6C) (persons providing fraudulent documents)(13).

(3) An amount within this sub-paragraph is an amount which a company is to deduct and pay by virtue of paragraph 3ZB in circumstances where—

- (a) a company is an employment intermediary,
- (b) on the basis that paragraph 3ZB does not apply by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph the company has not deducted and paid the amount, but
- (c) the company has not been provided by any other person with evidence from which it would be reasonable in all the circumstances to conclude that sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph applied (and the mere assertion by a person that the manner in which the worker provided the services was not subject to (or to the right of) supervision, direction or control by any person is not such evidence).

(4) An amount within this sub-paragraph is an amount that the company is to deduct and pay in accordance with paragraph 3ZB in circumstances where sub-paragraph (4) of that paragraph applies (services provided under arrangements made by intermediaries).

(5) An amount within this sub-paragraph is any interest or penalty in respect of an amount within any of sub-paragraphs (2) to (4) for which the company is liable.

(6) In this paragraph “paragraph 3ZB” means paragraph 3ZB of Part 8 of Schedule 3 to these Regulations.

(7) In this Part “the relevant date” in relation to a relevant contributions debt means the date on which the first payment is due on which contributions are not accounted for.

Interpretation of Part 3C: general

29Z. In this Part—

- “company” includes a limited liability partnership;
- “director” has the meaning given by section 67 of ITEPA 2003;
- “personal liability notice” has the meaning given by paragraph 29Z1(2);
- “the specified amount” has the meaning given by paragraph 29Z1(2)(a).

(12) Paragraph 29X of Part 3B of Schedule 4 was inserted by S.I. 2012/821.

(13) Paragraphs 3ZB(6A) to (6C) are inserted into the Social Security (Contributions) Regulations 2001 by regulation 6 of these Regulations.

Liability of directors for relevant contributions debts

29Z1.—(1) This paragraph applies in relation to an amount of relevant contributions debt of a company if the company does not deduct that amount by the time by which the company is required to do so.

(2) HMRC may serve a notice (“personal liability notice”) on any person who was, on the relevant date, a director of the company—

- (a) specifying the amount of relevant contributions debt in relation to which this paragraph applies (“the specified amount”), and
- (b) requiring the director to pay HMRC—
 - (i) the specified amount, and
 - (ii) specified interest on that amount.

(3) The interest specified in the personal liability notice—

- (a) is to be at the rate applicable under section 178 of the Finance Act 1989⁽¹⁴⁾ for the purposes of section 86 of the Taxes Management Act 1970⁽¹⁵⁾, and
- (b) is to run from the date the notice is served.

(4) A director who is served with a personal liability notice is liable to pay to HMRC the specified amount and the interest specified in the notice within 30 days beginning with the day the notice is served.

(5) If HMRC serve personal liability notices on more than one director of the company in respect of the same amount of relevant contributions debt, the directors are jointly and severally liable to pay to HMRC the specified amount and the interest specified in the notices.

Appeals in relation to personal liability notices

29Z2.—(1) A person who is served with a personal liability notice in relation to an amount of relevant contributions debt of a company may appeal against the notice.

(2) A notice of appeal must—

- (a) be given to HMRC within 30 days beginning with the day the personal liability notice is served, and
- (b) specify the grounds of the appeal.

(3) The grounds of appeal are—

- (a) that all or part of the specified amount does not represent an amount of relevant contributions debt, of the company, to which paragraph 29Z1 applies, or
- (b) that the person was not a director of the company on the relevant date.

(4) But a person may not appeal on the ground mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)(a) if it has already been determined, on an appeal by the company, that—

- (a) the specified amount is a relevant contributions debt of the company, and
- (b) the company did not deduct, account for, or (as the case may be) pay the debt by the time by which the company was required to do so.

⁽¹⁴⁾ 1989 c. 26. Relevant amendments to section 178 were made by section 63 and paragraphs 5 and 6 of Schedule 11 to the Finance (No. 2) Act 1992 (c. 48), section 79 and 205 of, and paragraph 30 of Schedule 7 and Schedule 41 to the Finance Act 1996 (c. 8), section 34 and paragraph 13 of Schedule 4 to the Finance Act 1998 (c. 36) and sections 711 and 724(1) of, and paragraphs 156 and 162(a) of Schedule 6 and Schedule 8 to ITEPA.

⁽¹⁵⁾ 1970 c. 9.

(5) Subject to sub-paragraph (6), on an appeal that is notified to the tribunal, the tribunal is to uphold or quash the personal liability notice.

(6) In a case in which the ground of appeal mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)(a) is raised, the tribunal may also reduce or increase the specified amount so that it does represent an amount of relevant contributions debt, of the company, to which paragraph 29Z1 applies.

Withdrawal of personal liability notices

29Z3.—(1) A personal liability notice is withdrawn if the tribunal quashes it.

(2) An officer of Revenue and Customs may withdraw a personal liability notice if the officer considers it appropriate to do so.

(3) If a personal liability notice is withdrawn, HMRC must give notice of that fact to the person upon whom the notice was served.

Recovery of sums due under personal liability notice: application of Part 6 of Taxes Management Act 1970

29Z4.—(1) For the purposes of this Part, Part 6 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (collection and recovery) applies as if—

- (a) the personal liability notice were an assessment, and
- (b) the specified amount and any interest on that amount under paragraph 29Z1(2)(b)(ii) were income tax charged on the director upon whom the notice is served, and that Part of that Act applies with the modification in paragraph (2) and any other necessary modifications.

(2) Summary proceedings for the recovery of the specified amount, and any interest on that amount under paragraph 29Z1(2)(b)(ii), may be brought in England and Wales or Northern Ireland at any time before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day after the day on which personal liability notice is served.

Repayment of surplus amounts

29Z5.—(1) This paragraph applies if—

- (a) one or more personal liability notices are served in respect of an amount of relevant contributions debt of a company, and
- (b) the amounts paid to HMRC (whether by directors upon whom notices are served or the company) exceed the aggregate of the specified amount and any interest on it under paragraph 29Z1(2)(b)(ii).

(2) HMRC is to repay the difference on a just and equitable basis and without unreasonable delay.

(3) HMRC is to pay interest on any sum repaid.

(4) The interest—

- (a) is to be at the rate applicable under section 178 of the Finance Act 1989 for the purposes of section 824 of the Taxes Act, and
- (b) is to run from the date the amounts paid to HMRC come to exceed the aggregate mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b).”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make a number of consequential amendments to the Social Security (Contributions) Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001/1004) (“the Contributions Regulations”).

The Contributions Regulations set out how to calculate an individual’s earnings for the purpose of earnings-related National Insurance contributions (“NICs”). Schedule 3 of the Contributions Regulations provides for certain payments to be disregarded for these purposes. In particular, paragraphs 4A to 4D of Part VIII of Schedule 3 to the Contributions Regulations provide that certain payments of travel, subsistence and accommodation costs and expenses in connection with an employment, some or all of the duties of which are performed overseas, are to be disregarded for this purpose. Regulation 3 amends regulation 40(2)(b) of the Contributions Regulations to ensure that payments of general earnings that are disregarded under these paragraphs additionally do not give rise to any liability to Class 1A NICs on the part of a secondary contributor.

Regulation 4 amends regulation 114(5) and (6) of the Contributions Regulations following the enactment of the Merchant Shipping (Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping) Regulations 2015 (S.I. 2015/782) (“the Merchant Shipping Regulations”), which update the requirement for certain workers on merchant shipping vessels to hold certificates of competency. Regulation 114(5) provides an exemption from liability to secondary Class 1 NICs in respect of such a worker if they are employed on or in connection with an offshore installation on the UK continental shelf, and their presence on the vessel is necessary to satisfy the requirements for the safe manning of that ship set out in the Merchant Shipping Regulations.

Regulation 5 adds a new sub-paragraph (da) to paragraph 6 of Part 5 of Schedule 3 to the Contributions Regulations, which provides that any payment which is exempted from income tax under section 323A of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (c. 1) (“ITEPA”) will also be disregarded for the purposes of calculating an individual’s earnings for NICs. Section 323A was inserted into ITEPA by section 13 of the Finance Act 2016 (c. 24). The section introduces a new statutory exemption from income tax for trivial benefits-in-kind provided by employers to employees.

Regulations 6 and 7 make a number of consequential amendments to the Contributions Regulations. These Regulations are made in consequence of amendments being made to Chapter 2 of Part 5 of the ITEPA and amendments to Part 4 of the Income Tax (Pay As You Earn) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/2682) (“the PAYE Regulations”) by virtue of the Finance Act 2016.

Regulation 6 inserts new sub-paragraphs (6A) to (6C) into paragraph 3ZB of Part 8 of Schedule 3 to the Contributions Regulations to reflect new section 339A(7) to (9) of ITEPA.

In particular, new sub-paragraph (6A) of paragraph 3ZB makes provision for circumstances where a client or a relevant person provides the employment intermediary with a fraudulent document intended to mislead it into thinking that the manner in which the worker provides the service is not subject to the right of supervision, direction or control. In such a case, sub-paragraph (6B) applies.

New sub-paragraph (6B) of paragraph 3ZB provides that where the conditions set out in sub-paragraph (6A) are met, it is the party who provides the fraudulent document who will be liable for the contributions which were not deducted as a consequence of the actions of that person.

New sub-paragraph (6C) of paragraph 3ZB defines “relevant person” for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (6A) and (6B).

Regulation 7 inserts new paragraphs 29Y to 29Z5 into the Contributions Regulations to reflect new provisions inserted into Part 4 of the PAYE Regulations by virtue of the Finance (No. 2) Act 2016. New paragraphs 29Y to 29Z5 make provision in the Contributions Regulations for the recovery from a director or officer of a company of debt owed as a result of paragraph 3ZB of Part 8 of Schedule 3 to the Contributions Regulations not being operated correctly.

In particular, new paragraphs 29Y and 29Z5 define a number of terms for the purposes of Part 3C of Schedule 4 to the Contributions Regulations.

New paragraph 29Z1 provides that where a company has not paid the relevant contributions debt, by the relevant date, then HMRC may serve a personal liability notice on those who were directors of the company on the relevant date in respect of the relevant contributions debt.

New paragraph 29Z2 makes provision in respect of appeals against a personal liability notice served by HMRC under paragraph 29Z1.

New paragraph 29Z3 sets out the circumstances under which a personal liability notice can be withdrawn.

New paragraph 29Z4 provides that Part 6 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 which makes provision as to the collection and recovery of sums due to HMRC applies to personal liability notices.

New paragraph 29Z5 makes provision for cases where the amounts paid to HMRC under a personal liability notice exceed the aggregate of the relevant PAYE debt and the specified interest including payment of interest.
