AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED KING-DOM AND ETHIOPIA RELATIVE TO THE
FRONTIERS BETWEEN BRITISH EAST AFRICA, UGANDA, AND ETHIOPIA.

Signed at Adis Ababa, December 6, 1907.

(The Amharic text of this Agreement bears the Seal of the Emperor Menelek II.)

THE frontier between British East Africa, Uganda, and Ethiopia, agreed on between the two Governments, shall be—

The line which is marked in red on the maps annexed to this Treaty in duplicate, which line, starting from the junction of the River Dawa with the River Ganale, follows the thalweg of the River Dawa to Ursulli, and from that point follows the tribal limits between the Gurré and the Borana to Gebel Kuffolé; from Gebel Kuffolé the line passes through the summits of the following hills: Roka, Churré Moyele, Burrolé, El Dintu, Furroli, Dugga Kakulla, Burrechuma, Afur. From there the line goes to the creek at the south end of Lake Stefanie, thence due west to Lake Rudolf, thence north-west across Lake Rudolf to the point of the peninsula east of Sanderson Gulf, thence along the west shore of that peninsula to the mouth, or marshes at the mouth, of the River Kibish (River Sacchi), thence along the thalweg of this river to latitude $5^{\circ} 25'$ north; from there due west to a point $35^{\circ} 15'$ longitude east of Greenwich, thence the line follows this degree of longitude to its intersection with latitude $5^{\circ} 40'$ north, and runs from there to the intersection of the 6° north latitude with the 35° of longitude east of Greenwich.

The tribes occupying either side of the line shall have the right to use the grazing grounds on the other side as in the past, but during their migrations it is understood that they shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the territorial authority. Free access to the nearest wells is equally accorded to the tribes occupying either side of the line.

Both Governments shall send Commissioners, who shall, in concert, delimit the exact line of the frontier which is above described, and which is marked, pending such delimitation, with a red line upon the accompanying maps.

While they are there they shall settle the frontier of the Borana with the Gurré in concert with the heads of those tribes and in accordance with their customs.

The above Treaty is written in duplicate, one copy being in the hands of the British Government and the other copy being in the hands of the Ethiopian Government.

His Britannic Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires.
